

REGULATION
Subject

Part (1):

Sub Part “1” ICAO and IATA

- (a) A International civil aviation organization.
- Historical background of ICAO.
  - International civil aviation organization (ICAO).
  - Applicability of air regulations.
  - Functions of the ICAO governing bodies.
  - Documents carried in aircraft (Art 29)
- (b) B International air transport association (IATA)

Sub part “2” the annexes of ICAO

- Origin
- Composition of the annexes
- Purpose of the annexes

Sub part “3” the need for international control in civil aviation.

Sub part “4” air legislation and enforcing agencies

- The federal aviation F.A.A ( United States)
- The air registration board ( United king dom.)

Part 2 :

ECAR NO.

ECAR NO.1 Definitions and abbreviations

ECAR NO.21 Approved design and manufacture organizations

ECAR NO.36 Noise standards

ECAR NO.39 Airworthiness directives and reporting system

ECAR NO.43 Maintenance, preventive maintenance, and alternations.

ECAR NO.45 Identification and registration marking

ECAR NO.65 Certification: airmen other than flight crewmembers

ECAR NO.91 General operating and flight rules EAC 91-1 aircraft weight and balance control

EAC 91-2 Civil Aviation Clubs

EAC 91-3 Aircraft Sign Towing

EAC 91-4 Foreign Aircraft Lease

EAC 91-5 Aboard Operation of aircraft with Egyptian registration

EAC 91-6 air ambulance operations

EAC 91-1 aircraft taxing

ECAR NO. 121 Certification and operation: domestic, flag, and supplemental air-carriers

ECAR NO. 145 Approved maintenance organization & repair station

EAC 145-1 Nondestructive testing agencies and quality control

EAC 145-2 Requirements for welding workshops and quality control

ECAR NO. 175 Transport of Dangerous Goods.